Welcome

Positive Partnerships would like to acknowledge the Turrbal and Yuggera peoples of the lands where this meeting will take place. We pay respect to elders past and present.

We're excited to welcome you to our gathering, collaborating with the Autism CRC as we consolidate the new content for Phase 5. It's a truly special opportunity to have our First Nations Reference Group, Multicultural Collaboration Group, Autistic Advisory Group, Autism CRC and Positive Partnerships staff all together in one space – to learn, share, and enjoy each other's company.

South Bank and the surrounding areas of Brisbane are located on the traditional lands of the Turrbal and Yuggera (Jagera) peoples, who have lived along the Brisbane River for thousands of years. Known traditionally as Meeanjin, meaning "place of the blue water lilies," Brisbane was an important gathering place where Aboriginal communities met for trade, cultural activities, ceremonies, and the sharing of knowledge.

Today, South Bank remains an important place for recognising and celebrating First Nations culture. Within walking distance of Rydges South Bank are several significant cultural sites including:

- kuril dhagun, State Library of Queensland (slq.qld.gov.au/visit/spaces/kuril-dhagun) — A dedicated First Nations cultural and community space featuring exhibitions, storytelling, digital displays, and community gathering areas. The space is named after the kuril (water rat), an animal of cultural significance to the area.
- Aboriginal Art Co. (aboriginalart.co) — A First Nations-led, not-for-profit gallery and cultural enterprise dedicated to ethical and authentic Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander art. It provides opportunities to connect with artists, attend cultural programs, and purchase authentic artworks.

Our meeting will take place at the Rydges Hotel in South Bank, Brisbane, a stunning location close to the banks of the Brisbane River. You'll be just a short walk or ferry ride from some of the city's most beautiful and iconic spots – South Bank Parklands and lagoon, across the Neville Bonner Bridge into the city the Botanic Gardens or a ferry ride to Howard Smith Wharves.

You can find out more about Rydges South Bank at rydges.com/accommodation/brisbane-qld/brisbane-south-bank.

Information about Raymond

- Raymond is Autism CRC's certified therapy dog. Liv Gatfield is his handler.
- He will be at the workshop each day, and staying at the hotel.
- He is certified to work off lead, so won't be on a lead in the function room. If you have concerns about this, please contact Liv Gatfield on ogatfield@autismcrc.com.au or 0411 094 346.
- Therapy dogs are there for everyone, so you can pat and play with him.

Meeting guidelines

We will start on Monday with all groups combining to learn more about adult facilitation techniques with Kerry Bisaker. This day was optional, so not all group members will be attending on Monday.

Tuesday and Wednesday will look, sound and feel a lot different to our last collaboration, and we'll experience a different way of working as we collaborate with the Autism CRC.

We will be following a tight timeline and will be using multiple modes of working, to quickly share and record reflections and considerations on each concept.

Positive Partnerships is not asking for feedback on the updated content — co-design is already built into it through the Autism CRC team and the information they have drawn on, which was itself founded on co-design. Instead, we are seeking feedback on proposed activities in the regular Parent Carer and Professional Learning workshops.

For some of the activities we will be seated in mixed groups from the First Nations Reference Group, Autistic Advisory Group, Multicultural Collaboration Group and Positive Partnerships team. At other times you will be working with your specific group.

Travelling to and from the event

Taxi to and from the airport

If you are travelling via plane, you will receive digital CabCharge passes via SMS that you can upload to your phone wallet. You will receive enough passes to get you from your home to the airport, to the event and back home again. Your key contact in Positive Partnerships will contact you to make sure everything runs smoothly. You may be asked to travel with a Positive Partnerships colleague who is arriving at a time similar to yours. Your key contact will speak to you in advance about this.

Train to and from the airport

Another option, if you prefer, is to take the train. Trains run direct from the airport to South Brisbane Station and cost $23.30 (less if booked online in advance), paid via credit card. Follow signs in the airport to the platform and board the AirTrain heading to the Gold Coast – you will not have to change trains.

The closest train station is South Brisbane Station. Upon exiting the station, you will see the Queensland Performing Arts Complex. Turn right onto Grey Street. Walk approximately 300 metres along Grey Street; the hotel is on the same side as the station. It's about a 4-minute walk from South Brisbane Station to the hotel.

Driving and parking information

If you live in Southeast Queensland and are driving to the event, Positive Partnerships will cover the cost of your parking.

Rydges have valet service parking – if you are driving to the hotel, park in the main driveway and advise the concierge of your name and that you are attending the Positive Partnerships Conference. They will do the rest!

Where to enter: on the corner of Glenelg and Grey Streets, enter off Glenelg Street.

Walking route from South Brisbane Station to the hotel.

Driveway entry for valet parking, off Glenelg Street.

Travel changes or questions

If your travel plans change or you have any questions about the event, please get in touch with your contact person:

Optional extras to bring

- Activewear for walking or using the hotel gym
- Swimmers for the pool or South Bank lagoon
- Umbrella or raincoat for any wet weather
- Note-taking materials if you'd like to make notes across the event
- Fidgets or sensory tools — there will also be some available in the room

Dietary considerations

Just a reminder that if you haven't already given your dietary preferences to your Positive Partnerships contact, please do so. This will make sure we have suitable options available for you at the event.

Meals provided

- Breakfast – included in your room rate each day. Please give staff your room number when you are seated. As breakfast is provided, it cannot be claimed as an allowance from Positive Partnerships.
- Monday – morning tea, lunch and afternoon tea
- Tuesday – morning tea, lunch and afternoon tea
- Wednesday – morning tea and lunch
- Dinner on Monday and Tuesday – free time and your own choice, or join an optional team dinner. Claim meal allowance costs as usual.
